PLEASE NOTE: The By-Laws of the National Association of Wastewater Transporters, Inc. (NAWT) define the types of membership categories as:

Membership Types

Independent Member $175

Independent Members shall be individual persons, firms, corporations, sole proprietorships, or municipal authorities engaged in the onsite wastewater treatment industry including, septic and septage companies; sludge hauling companies; portable sanitation companies; sewer line cleaning companies; grease trap cleaning companies; sanitary system construction companies; bacteria treatment companies; and those other firms which provide sanitary waste-related services. Independent members shall pay membership dues as established by the Board of Directors and shall have all rights and privileges of membership, including the right to vote, as established by the By-laws.

Company Member $350

Company Members shall be firms, companies, corporations, sole proprietorships, or municipal authorities engaged in the onsite wastewater treatment industry including, septic and septage companies; sludge hauling companies; portable sanitation companies; sewer line cleaning companies; grease trap cleaning companies; sanitary system construction companies; bacteria treatment companies; and those other firms which provide sanitary waste-related services. Company Members shall pay membership dues as established by the Board of Directors. All employees of the Company Member shall have all rights and privileges of membership, except the right to vote, as established by the By-laws. Only the Company Member shall have the right to vote.

Associate Member $750

Associate Members (non service provider) shall be persons, firms, or corporations which provide a good or service that is an integral part of the NAWT members' ability to conduct business. Associate Members shall pay membership dues as established by the Board of Directors and shall have all rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote.

Member Association $100

Member Associations shall be state, local, or regional associations representing members of the onsite wastewater treatment industry. Membership in NAWT does not afford membership in state, local, or regional associations. Conversely, membership in state, local, and regional associations does not afford membership in NAWT. Member Associations shall pay membership dues as established by the Board of Directors.
